CORRESPONDENCE

Joan Scanlan, LCSW- Ms. Scanlan presented a situation that she felt could possibly be unethical and asked the board if they could refer her client to someone that would treat them "pro bono." After careful consideration of the situation, members of the board agreed that she is not required to continue seeing the client. However, the board does not have a list of practitioners that offer services "pro bono." Ms. Scanlan was advised to consider checking with the professional organizations to inquire if they know of any practitioners that offer free or sliding scale services.

Ms. Papania was referred to Rule 113, of the Rules, Standards and Procedures.

Shirley Mitchell, LMSW- Ms. Mitchell requested the board to allow her additional time to complete her continuing education hours due to a medical condition. Members of the board requested that Ms. Mitchell submit medical documentation from her physician before they will consider her request. Ms. Mitchell was reminded that her license is currently lapsed and that she is not eligible to practice social work until she has an active license.

Ardia Perkins-Thomas, MSW – Ms. Perkins-Thomas requested the board to review a job description to determine if it is within the scope of practice of a social worker. After careful consideration, members of the board agreed that this position is social work. Should Ms. Perkins-Thomas hold this position, she will at minimum need to hold the Registered Social Worker registration.

Jessica Brayden, LCSW – Ms. Brayden requested the board to advise her on a reporting issue that involves a minor client that has been diagnosed with HIV. The client allegedly was in an altercation with another student that resulted in broken skin on both the client and the student. The Louisiana Social Work Practice Act and the Rules Standards, and Procedures do not specifically speak to this situation.
