G. REPORTS

1. Chair of the Board Report

Chair Hardy provides the following report:

- ❖ Thanked Chancellor Tommy Warner and other members of the Nunez Community College staff for their hospitality to the Board.
- ❖ Reported on his attendance at the recent ACCT 2017 Leadership Congress as a member of the ACCT Board of Directors.
- ❖ Ribbon Cuttings were held at Louisiana Delta Community College's Tallulah and Monroe Campuses, Northshore Technical Community College – Livingston Campus, and Bossier Parish Community College. Governor John Bel Edwards was in attendance at nearly all events, showing his support of our system.

2. President's Report

Dr. Sullivan provides the following report:

- ❖ Thanked Chancellor Warner and Nunez staff for their hospitality.
- ❖ Highlighted details of the LCTCS Annual Conference, being held at the Sheraton Hotel
 - Pre-conference sessions began today and are ongoing.
 - A Women's Leadership Seminar will be held today at 1:30 PM with Baton Rouge President, Sharon Weston Broome, Leadership Coach, Dima Ghawi, and a panel which will include Senator Sharon Hewitt, Susan Kliebert from Kushner LaGraize and two of our Chancellors, Joan Davis & Natalie Harder.
 - Mr. David Helveston highlighted a special event partnered with the Urban League for a job fair for high school students in the New Orleans Area.
 - Invited the Board to an event, hosted by the LCTCS Foundation and Louisiana Calling 5:00 pm in the Waterbury Ballroom at the Sheraton. There will also be an important announcement by Country Music Television centered on the rural campus initiative. This initiative looks to increase enrollment in rural campuses throughout the state.
 - There are plenary sessions on Thursday and Friday that the Board is invited to attend also: Thursday - Opening Plenary Luncheon with speaker, Michael Hecht at 11:30 am, Afternoon Plenary Session with speaker, Jean Gatz at 3:15 pm, and on Friday - the Closing Plenary Luncheon, to include the state of the system address, at 12:30 pm.
 - While our system is very well known for creating great employees and great workers for industry demand, something we are not as well known for is that we work to develop future leaders. We do this in ways like Phi Theta Kappa (PTK), Student Government Associations, and even our Student Board Members. This week at conference you will see videos highlighting this effort.
- ❖ A WorkReady U media campaign will launch soon. The campaign includes commercials that will air during the CBS SEC football pre and post-game shows and the NFL Today on CBS pre and post-game shows (Baton Rouge 10 parish area only). The campaign will ramp up this week for a year in the following markets: Alexandria (FOX 48), Baton Rouge (WAFB, NBC 33, FOX 44, & CW 21) New Orleans (WVUE & Bounce TV), Monroe (FOX 14), Shreveport (FOX 33), Lake Charles (Bounce TV), and Lafayette (KLFY 10). On a rotating schedule, the programming includes FOX PAC 12 football, Judge Judy, Judge Mathis, The Tonight Show, Maury, Steve Harvey Show, Ellen, Family Feud, local news, Big Bang Theory (reruns), and Entertainment Tonight to name a few. The campaign also includes statewide social media geo-fencing, transit ads in Baton Rouge and radio in Alexandria, Baton Rouge, and New Orleans markets
- ❖ Provided a detailed update on the Our Louisiana 2020 goals, including an informative scorecard.

- ❖ In August, the National Association of State Contractors Licensing Agencies presented the 2017 Innovation in Regulation Award to the Louisiana Contractors Accreditation Institute which is a 3-way partnership between LCTCS, Louisiana Economic Development (LED), and the Louisiana State Licensing Board for Contractors.
- ❖ Pointed out to the Board that in the updates section of the agenda, #6, a report on the policies that the Board passed that benefit our employees and employee families. Of the three policy benefits, LCTCS has provided $388,172 in tuition reduction or exemption.
- ❖ Provided the following college updates
 - SLCC received an $82,000 donation for nursing in St. Landry Parish & $200,000 for non-credit training by JP Morgan Chase.
- ❖ Campus Transition Update
 - Director Willie Smith, Chancellors Aspinwall, Harder, and Sawtelle addressed the Board and gave an update on campus transitions.
- ❖ Chancellor Dennis Epps shared with the Board that Louisiana Delta Community College competed against many Louisiana four year colleges, and was selected as the new Louisiana Headquarters for the Small Business Development Center.
- ❖ Northshore Technical Community College Chancellor Will Wainwright and Vice Chancellor of Strategic Initiatives Tina Tinney addressed the Board about their coordinated effort in response to the human need following the “no name” storm of 2016 in Louisiana. NTCC offered a method for community members to take recovery efforts into their own hands. The “Be Your Own Workforce” model for emergency response efforts came about within days of the August 2016 storm and floods. Dr. Tina Tinney served as the architect of this model, and the model will be presented for replication in other parts of the country. Rapid Response funds were used to execute the program that provided free courses that trained community members to take recovery into their own hands. More than 350 participants accessed the programs that taught them how to recover from disasters in their own homes. Drs. Wainwright and Tinney shared a video of a student who participated in the “Be Your Own Workforce” program and then enrolled at Northshore Technical Community College. The model will be able to be replicated as needed in other communities.

16. Board Resolution Regarding Merit Adjustments

On motion by Supervisor St. Blanc, seconded by Supervisor Carter, the Board voted to approve the following resolution. The motion carried.

Resolution to Urge and Request LCTCS Colleges and Board Office to Provide Salary Merit Adjustments to Faculty and Staff

Whereas, LCTCS colleges have relentlessly found innovative means to meet the ever changing workforce demands of the state though the diverse field of students they serve, and

Whereas, given the ever changing and decreasing nature of resources available, LCTCS colleges have been in the forefront of Louisiana public higher education institutions, particularly through enterprise services and campus consolidation efforts, and

Whereas, LCTCS colleges have done extra ordinary work toward the goals of “Our Louisiana 2020: Building the Workforce of Tomorrow” even with these resource constraints, and

Whereas, salary adjustments are the primary means to award and recognize the valuable contributions faculty and staff provide toward the aforementioned.

Therefore be it resolved, the LCTCS Board of Supervisors Urges and Requests the leadership of all LCTCS Colleges and Board Office to provide, to the practicable extent possible given the availability of financial resources, salary adjustments to faculty and staff for meritorious service as documented through performance evaluations based on plans that are to be submitted to the system President.
