NOPD REPORT:

Sgt. Russell gave report on the homicide at the 3900 block of Tulane Ave. He has received good leads on this homicide. Relative to the shooting at the 500 block of So. Scott, the perpetrator was arrested which led to a big narcotics arrest. There did not appear to be any relation between the shooting and the homicide. Sgt. Russell said that NOPD is making good progress in arrests relating to prior crimes.

Mary M. moved to have Sgt. Alfred Russell approved as the new MCSD Full Time Coordinator. Motion was seconded by Wendy L. and motion passed.

New Business:

Mary M. advised that the Cooperative Endeavor Agreement (CEA) has been expired for many years. She suggested that it might be beneficial to do a one year renewal until a more permanent solution can be reached. She will consult with MCSD attorney and CPA for advice.

Public Questions/Comments:

- Anthony Mumphrey and Mr. Ross Chapman are owners of TMG on Canal Street and N. Bernadotte. Mr. Mumphrey complained about transients sleeping on their property and using the the property's water, using drugs on the property. Ross Chapman said that he has spoken to the Pastor of House of Prayer, the adjacent business, about fencing the area between the two businesses to help stop the loitering in the area between the properties. Sgt. Russell said he will have Officer Miguel Aubert, the Quality of Life Officer reach out to Mumphrey and Chapman and schedule a property /business check.

- Bob Rivard asked questions about the 2022 Budget

Next Meeting: Wednesday, October 20, 2021, 6PM (Location to be announced)

Wendy L. moved to adjourn the meeting, seconded by Mary M. and meeting adjourned.
