The motion passed with a majority vote. Commissioner Westbrook voted nay.

The Executive Director continued by stating there have been several sales finance applicants with the word "broker" in their name. The Executive Director stated LA- R.S. 32:1252 (5) defines "Broker":

"Broker" means a person who, for a fee or commission, arranges or offers to arrange a transaction involving the sale, for purposes other than resale, of a new motor vehicle or recreational product, and who is not:

(a) A motor vehicle dealer or recreational products dealer, or bona fide employee of a motor vehicle dealer, when acting on behalf of a motor vehicle or recreational products dealer.

The Executive Director added Brokers are required to be licensed by the Commission pursuant to LA-R.S. 32:1254:

A. (8) Brokers

After a brief discussion, the Commission determined it would be necessary for the applicants as a lender to finance motor vehicles pursuant to LSA-R.S. 6:969.1 et seq. whose names holds them out as a "broker" to obtain a broker license pursuant to LSA-R.S. 32:1251 et seq. or change their name to avoid further violation of the law.
