IV. NEW BUSINESS

A. Supreme Court AI and Standardized Fee Study

Jennifer Eagan, LASC present.

Judge O'Neal discussed standardized page rates in Louisiana. Ms. Eagan presented information about Bill 155, which pertains only official reporters. The Bill failed. She presented information to the board from the Supreme Court about the AI and standardized fee study, shortage of court reporters, what might be feasible as a resource, not to replace the court reporters, but to assist the reporters making their work more efficient and to allow off-site transcription. She thanked the respondents of the LASC survey. She is planning to host a Court Reporter Round table early 2026. The report generated from the survey will be made available to the Legislature in 2026.

Judge O'Neal spoke about AI being new; AI will never replace the court reporter. Rosa Manale asked questions of what is needed to fill the shortage of court reporters. Ms. Eagan, said it is the hope to assist the reporters with a rough draft, voice copy. Technological improvements must be taken. Meg Kramer and Sarah Buxton spoke about their experience with the downfall in testing the AI program. Much discussion was held among the Board.

V. OLD BUSINESS

A. Review of Board Rules 701-719 Pursuant to JML 25-038

Joshua Force, CSR Board Attorney addressed the hearing process and the need for procedure. He emphasized the questions: were the rules necessary; are they consistent with the governing board; are they aligned with the Board; do the benefits of rules outweigh the need of any changes to be made.

Rosie motioned Rules 701-719 are necessary and consistent with the law and aligns with the mission of the Board. Cristina Carter seconded. Motion carried with no opposition.

Upcoming review of rules will be in 2026 of Nos. 103, 303, 305, 313, 315, 503-509, 1101, 1105, 1107.
