If application for renewal of license has not been made, the license shall expire on December thirty-first and it shall be illegal for any person to represent himself and act as an auctioneer thereafter. Any auctioneer who submits a renewal application after January first shall be subject to a late penalty of seventy-five dollars, which shall be paid to the Louisiana Auctioneers Licensing Board. Any auctioneer having a previous annual license shall be presumed to be a renewal applicant unless that auctioneer has allowed the license to lapse for more than one year from the date of renewal. If such license has lapsed for twelve continuous months or more, then the auctioneer shall be deemed unlicensed and shall only be licensed by completing the same requirements as a new applicant. This requirement may be waived and restoration of the license granted if, in the board's discretion, the circumstances surrounding the auctioneer's failure to renew timely so warrant.

(3) The board shall notify the auctioneer of the need for renewal at the latest known address at least sixty days in advance of the expiration and send such forms for renewal as required by law. The board shall require in such application, or otherwise, information relating to the following:

B. The board shall issue the same number for the renewed license as that number issued for the original license.

C. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, no person duly licensed as an auctioneer in any other jurisdiction and temporarily present in this state shall conduct an auction in this state unless he acts in association with an auctioneer duly licensed in this state if the jurisdiction in which the nonresident auctioneer is licensed requires such an association with an auctioneer licensed in that jurisdiction before an auctioneer duly licensed in Louisiana may conduct an auction in that jurisdiction.

D. Every nonresident applicant for a license under this Chapter shall file with the board as part of the application for a license a written irrevocable consent that any cause of action growing out of any transaction subject to this Section may be commenced against the licensee in the proper court of any parish of this state in which the cause of action may arise or in which the plaintiff may reside by a service of process upon the board as the licensee's agent and stipulating and agreeing that such service of process shall be taken and held in all courts to be as valid and binding as if due service has been made upon the person according to the laws of this or any other state.
