Please find the following addendum to the below-mentioned BID.

Addendum No.: 1

Bid#: 23-7-1

Project Name: Ashton Oaks Drainage Repair

Bid Due Date: April 4, 2023

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS:

Question 1. Today during a site visit for the referenced bid solicitation, I noticed that new work had recently been performed both at 476 E. Redbud (concrete panel replacement) and 508 JP Court (grading/backfill around catch basin) per the attached pictures. This work appears to coincide with the details of the bid solicitation. Pardon my confusion but perhaps is there a mistake in the bid solicitation?

Answer 1. The concrete panels by 476 East Redbud are not the panels being changed in the new project. The panels in the picture were changed recently in a different project. The stone/rip rap around the catch basin at 508 JP Court has been there for quite some time, it looks like the homeowner may have dressed/graded the rocks back around the catch basin. The catch basin still needs to be re-sealed and backfilled around.
