Addendum No. 02

Your reference is directed to LPSO139-2026 for the Invitation to Bid (ITB) on Lafourche Parish Sheriff's Office uniforms, which is currently scheduled to open at 2:00 PM on August 17, 2026.

This addendum corrects an error on Addendum No. 1, in the Lafourche Parish Sheriff's Office response to Question 4, "Is there an exception for an out-of-state vendor that cannot meet the eight-hour emergency delivery requirement?"

Vendor Question #3:

LPSO139-2026 - Uniforms

Reference Document: Uniforms – 2026 page 5/Delivery

Please clarify the eight-hour emergency delivery requirement. Uniforms must first be ordered in the correct size and often embroidered, making that timeframe impractical. Most agencies keep a small stock of common sizes for emergencies. Would that be acceptable, or would the eight-hour delivery requirement apply only to undecorated items already in stock?

Lafourche Parish Sheriff's Office Response Question #3:

On Page 5/Delivery – Delivery section is revised to read:

Delivery shall be on an as needed basis, and shall be delivered within ten working days from the date of order. Lafourche Parish Sheriff's Office may make emergency purchases with delivery requested within an eight-hour period. While Vendor is responsible for making timely deliveries in accordance with bid proposal delivery terms, exceptions will be evaluated for events, disruptions, or delays that occur outside of the vendor's control.

All else remains as on original Invitation to Bid.
